Currently, more than 10,000 kids are living in foster care in Washington.

Approximately 6,000 children enter foster care in Washington each year.

Yet Washington has only 5,100 active foster homes.

Approximately 12% of children in foster care drop out of high school.

More than a third of children in Washington’s foster care system become homeless after leaving care.

1 in 8 Washingtonians live below the poverty line.

Approximately 41% of children in Out of Home Care live with a relative.

44% of people in Washington’s criminal justice system were formerly in foster care.

1 in 8 Washingtonians relies on SNAP (food stamps).